

My arm
 is almost well
 I felt a good deal afraid
 that you
~~that you~~
 took off
 your thick
 flannel
 that morning
 and for supper for it was hope was.

are out. Had a rain last night and the old sheep wash and Abissian peak were white with snow, which is not all gone. Charlie has gone down to the City for a day or two. He may be out at University before he returns, but of course that is uncertain. Did you send Berkeleyans as you spoke of doing. I have not heard of them. However I suppose they would acknowledge them to you.
 The Berkeley Presb. Chh. have in view a Dr. Harris from the East, supposed to be a strong man. We have paid Mrs. Alexander up to Nov. the time he quit preaching and shall raise what we can for him besides.
 Mrs. Lynch read us last Sabbath a sermon on Unconscious influence

By Dr. Bushnell. Very good: the principal thoughts, that unconscious influence was really stranger
 than any other & that it was far good or evil according to our real character.
 In her
 to the
 Patten
 estate has arrived.
 I hear.
 Beliere
 it is a don.

Dear Millie
 I suppose you have remembered that this is your birth day. I too have remembered it and send a little package to assure you that we think about you. I hope the contents will please you. Dear Child if my wishes could secure it for you, the year upon which you are entering should be brighter than some of the past. You have been such a comfort to me, that it seems as if you must be blessed for it, and at least as if the thought of it would be a comfort to you. These birthdays bring sad thoughts

^{I would have done up the supplies before sending but have not time as I did not get the suffering to} as well as loving ones, there are some that can only be remembered silently, but our loved ones would be the first to wish us to open our hearts to all the love that is left to us.

A letter from Joe informed me that you were over last Sat. I suppose you took your tile over to be looked.
I am very impatient to know how it comes out. Thanks for the Beacon. I like to see the Universality papers. Glad Prof. and Mrs. LeBarre have at last done the proper thing and called.
It would have been more to their credit had they done so sooner. Mr. Sill's idea that Hornell's needs bolstering up, or would he be bolstered up

^{by seeing you in Scribner} is slightly derogatory to Bustan is it not? I thought a Bustanian was sufficient unto himself. What Charly Head might feel about the matter is, it seems to me a matter of absolute indifference.
Ah. Snob came in last Sat. eve and struck for higher wages.
I declined. Sunday morning came Ah Sing and then Ah Ty. I said no if he chanced to stay for $15, all right - if not he could go. He said he would go. I said all right.
By and by came Ah Ty and said if I wanted him to stay he would stay. So that ended it.

The Dutchman's pipe had true leaves, the white roses